While attending Florida State University, Archie became a member of the Florida State University Guitar Ensemble, and was a part of the Dean's List, earning the recognition as a distinguished honor student. Archie was also elected to Phi Mu Alpha Mu, the honor society for music students. As an undergraduate student, he majored in History. He received his M.M. and D.M.A. in Guitar Performance at Florida State University. He completed his doctoral study at Rutgers University in New Jersey. Archie joined the Ocala Symphony Orchestra as a string player, and was instrumental in the formation of the Ocala Symphony Guitar Ensemble, which he has served as Music Director since its founding in 1991. Archie directs the Ocala Symphony guitar ensemble for its concerts and recitals, and leads the Orchestra in chamber music. He also serves as a guest soloist with the Florida Ensemble, the Orlando Philharmonic, the Florida State University Symphony, the Southwest Florida Symphony, and the Winter Garden Symphony. He has been invited to perform internationally as a guest artist with such ensembles as the Boston Sinfonietta, the New Jersey Symphony, and the South Carolina Festival Chorus. For over 10 years, Archie has been featured soloist for the Ursuline Sisters' annual Christmas Eve Liturgy with the Ocala Symphony, performing a Bach Double-Guitar Concerto. Archie has written a broad variety of commissioned works for solo guitar or solo guitar and chamber ensemble. Among his commissioned work are: Two Preludes for Solo Guitar; the Year 2000 Sonata for Solo Guitar and String Quartet; Falling Waters for solo guitar; The Music of... with words by Joyce Kilmer; Five Fusions for Piano, Solo Guitar and String Quartet; Serenade for Piano, Guitar and String Quartet; and Two Easy Pieces for solo guitar and ensemble. Archie was a member of the Board of Directors of the International Guitar Society, and directed seminars and workshops at the ISCA (International Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers) Summer Institute.
